Additional Backup Information

This interlocal agreement will allow the City to secure the professional services of AECOM, through its contract with Travis County, to assess the feasibility of co-locating the City's municipal court functions with Travis County's civil and family court functions in a new courthouse facility. Up to $62,000 would be used to reimburse Travis County for the consultant services needed to assess municipal court space requirements (including potential efficiencies), prepare conceptual layouts (stacking, massing and floor layouts), and conceptual level cost estimates for the City's consideration.
